HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENT By signing this agreement I hereby clearly and unequivocally express my intent to release, discharge, and hold harmless Shaka Surf School, its members, managers, officers, directors, employees, partners, joint venturers, volunteers, successors, and assigns from any and all claims or causes of action for compensation for physical injury or property damage arising out of or in any way connected with my participation in Shaka Surf School's surfing instructions activities, even if such physical injury or property damage is caused by the partial negligence, or even the sole negligence, of Shaka Surf School, its members, managers, officers, directors, employees, partners, joint venturers, volunteers, successors, or assigns. I hereby waive any such claims or causes of action for compensation for physical injury or property damage. By signing this agreement I am representing that I understand, comprehend, and appreciate that surfing is inherently a potentially dangerous sport, that the ocean, even in shallow portions or on seemingly calm days, is powerful and potentially dangerous because of, among other things, currents, rip currents, tides, waves, rocks, and other objects, sea creatures, swimmers, are inherently dangerous because of, among other things, their pointed tips, sharp edges and pointed fins, buoyancy, hard surfaces, and leg ropes, especially when placed in the ocean environment where they may be acted upon by the forces of the ocean, wind, and other people. By signing this agreement I am representing that I am a competent swimmer, that I am able to tread water for at least two minutes, and that I am able to swim unassisted for at least 50 yards. I also promise to inspect the beach and ocean conditions before I participate, and thereafter while I am participating, in any of Shaka Surf School's surfing instructions activities, and decline to participate, or stop participating, if I do not feel comfortable and confident in my ability to swim or surf in the prevailing conditions.
